The first seven days of the campaign have been set aside as "Volunteer Week," during which there will be no active solicitation. Subscriptions may be paid to any member of the committee, or may be paid at The Pine Cone office, where headquarters have been established.

Humane Society Here

Under the guidance of Mrs. Nayan Hyde, secretary of the California Humane Association, a number of Carmel residents met at Arts and Crafts Hall last Saturday for the purpose of forming a branch of the organization here.

Miss M. Louise Hutchinson was made temporary chairman and Miss Etta Tilton temporary secretary. A meeting is to be held shortly to elect permanent officers.

It is a fact that there is not in Monterey county an organization of this kind; so that such an organization here will have jurisdiction throughout the county, until an organization is established elsewhere in the county.

We Are on the Map

Sunday's Chronicle contained a large map showing the State road work now in progress and contemplated, and also depicts the work proposed under the forty-million-dollar bond issue, to be voted upon in August. The stretch of proposed new highway between Carmel and San Simeon is clearly indicated. Monterey and Pacific Grove are not on the map.

An interesting visitor here this week was Mr. Dougal Cushing of Montreal, Canada. He joined the Royal Canadian Flying Corps at the outbreak of the war in 1914 and proceeded to France. Four months later he was shot down while flying over the German lines, and was a prisoner in the enemy country twenty-seven months. He was fairly well treated.

Costume Dance

Being but sojourners here, albeit we wish they were permanents, and without their own home wherein to provide a good time for their many friends, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Van Riper gave a delightful costume dance at Arts and Crafts Hall last Friday evening.

And it was a colorful affair. With scores of vari-colored lanterns strung about the hall and the greens, yellows, reds, purples and blues of the Chinese girls, pirates, hula dancers, Indian maids and others one was fairly bewildered.

Here and there about the hall one found a couch with many hued covers and pillows whereon to rest between the fast recurring dances, music for which was furnished by Ben Leidig, Mrs. F. C. Pudan and Roddy Maddock.

The short hand of the clock pointed to the wee sma' hours when the dancers left for home.

Following were the invited guests:

Mrs. Philip Wilson, Mrs. C. Josselyn, Miss Sadee, Van Brower, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Heron, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hilliard, Mr. and Mrs. Van Wyck Brooks, Mr. Mrs. W. L. Overstreet, Mr. and F. R. Bechdolt, Mr. and Mrs. James Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Griley, Mr. Potter, Mr. McLaughlin.

Alice Hilby, Jeannette Hoagland, Eliot and Charis Boke, Bonnie Hale, Helen and Hilda Hilliard, Elizabeth and Maryan Hopper, Phyllis Overstreet, Grace Wickham, Shelie Harthorn.

Ernest Hemming, Hamilton Wolf, Talbert Josselyn, Laurence Harthorn, Philip and James Wilson, Gus Brelin, Robert Norton, Donald Hale, Ernest and George Schweninger, G. S. Seideneck, Clarence Risley.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

An exhibition of tempera water colors and monotypes by M. De Neale Morgan is on exhibition at the Book Shop during the Easter period.

In the Presbyterian Chapel, at Eighth and Dolores avenues, the Carmel Missionary Society meets at 3 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon. The subject will be "The New Era." Everyone is most welcome.

M. De Neale Morgan's splendid painting, "The Woodchoppers of Carmel," is on exhibition in New York, under the auspices of the Victory Loan Committee, headed by H. Ledyard Towle.

If you read it in the Pine Cone you may safely repeat it.
